Woodland Burial Ground at Rotherfield Greys, Henley-on-Thames, RG9 4PN

BY CAR: Cross the River Thames at Henley, heading west across the bridge (with the Angel pub on the left); go straight across at the traffic lights, past the church (on the right) and go up Hart Street into the town.

Stay in the left-hand lane and at the lights go straight over into Market Place. Continue up the hill, bearing round to the right onto Gravel Hill and continue along this road towards Rotherfield Greys (3 miles).

Continue past Badgemore Park Golf Club (on the right). Go past the sign for Greys Court (to the right) and past Rocky Lane (also on the right).

As the road bends sharply to the right, turn left onto a minor lane, and shortly after at the end of the lane, turn left again into Rotherfield Greys village. Go past the Maltsters Arms (on the right) and the Church (on the right) and just as you leave the village, the entrance to the natural burial ground is on the right.

Only 35 miles west of central London
